

HOYSALA TEMPLES: POETRY IN STONE

The baroque extravagance and visual splendour of the Hoysala temples in Karnataka is evidence of the creative genius of bygone times that has weathered the centuries. On this experience, we will rediscover two of the most beautiful and extravagant temples, those of Belur and Halebeed and that of Somnathpur, near Mysore. Built over a span of three hundred and fifty years, these temples are unique examples of highly sophisticated sculptural expression that seek to represent the myriad faces of everyday life. Together, we will also experience the wonderful coffee town of Chikmagalur along with the heritage of Mysore.

Return to the hotel for afternoon tea /coffee and rest and enjoy the place.

This evening, we will enjoy a lovely campfire and a wonderful local Malenadu cuisine dinner together at the hotel.

Overnight at Woodway

Day 3 – 3 September – Chikmagalur & Belur

This morning, we will head off on a coffee plantation walk to explore the beauty of dense coffee estates and to gain knowledge about horticulture and the process of growing coffee, bean separation, and powder making. This Coffee plantation stay allows you to experience the life of a passionate coffee grower. Right from the workings of a plantation, picking & processing the berries or just walking through a guided tour along with the friendly estate staff. It enables you to enjoy the plantation trails that have been set up for our guests to explore.

After breakfast, we will make our way to Belur.

Visit the Chennakeshava temple which is a fine example of Hoysala architecture. It was consecrated by the famous Hoysala king Vishnuvardhana to mark his victories in 1116 AD against the Cholas. The main structure of the temple, which is star-shaped, a homogenous architectural unit on a raised platform. Everything is carved in black stone, looking like metal. Facing the temple, at the entrance, stands the winged figure of Garuda, Lord Vishnu's carrier. The 650 charging elephants on the frieze around the walls outside are all different from each other. The exotic bracket figures on the walls of this temple are serene, playful and amorous, enhancing the overall effect of this pinnacle of architectural excellence.

Post our visit, we will head back to Chikmagalur and stay at the Hotel Taj Gateway or similar for 2 nights.

Dinner & overnight at the hotel.

Day 4 – 4 September – Halebid

This morning, after breakfast, we will head back down to Halebid for a day of sightseeing.

Halebeedu was the ancient capital of Hoysala dynasty and 'Halebeedu' actually means 'ruined city' as it was ruined by the Moghul sultanate twice.

The temples of Halebid bear mute testimony to the rich, cultural heritage of Karnataka. Visit the Hoysaleswara Temple, dating back to the 12th century, standing on platform like a casket, is a sculptural extravaganza, richly endowed with most finely detailed scroll work in stone. The walls of the temple are covered with an endless variety of gods and goddesses and also visit the Jain bastics.

We will have lunch in Halebid before returning to Chikmagalur for the night.

Tonight, pre-dinner we will have an informal and relaxed "fireside" chat curated and moderated by Urban Conservationist Kamalika Bose, to talk about the Hoysala dynasty and more.

Dinner and overnight in the hotel

Day 5 – 5 September – To Mysore

This morning, we check out and head back down towards Somnathpura. (4 ½ hours)

Lunch will be enroute.

Somnathpur (Somnathpura) is a small town situated half a mile far from the River Kaveri.

Somnathpur is a home to the popular ChennaKeshava temple built during the reign of Hoysala emperors. The temple stands erect as a symbol of great authority and skills possessed by Hoysala rulers. The sculpture and the idols of God and Goddesses speak volume about the Hoysala kingdom. A monumental beauty, the architectural design of this temple attracts people from all over the world.

Return to Mysore for the night.

Dinner & overnight at the Grand Mercure hotel or similar.

Day 6 – 6 September – Mysore to Bangalore airport

This morning, after breakfast, we check out and will do a panoramic tour of Mysore. From there, we head out towards Bangalore and have an early lunch enroute.
