CELEBRATING JAIPUR'S RECOGNITION AS A UNESCO WORLD HERITAGE CITY

The Taj celebrates Jaipur's UNESCO World Heritage status and invites guests to experience the regal splendour of Maharajas and Maharanis in the exclusive residences of Indian royalty.

Rambagh Palace, Jaipur

The erstwhile residence of Maharaja Sawai Man Singh II and his queen, Maharani Gayatri Devi, the palace was built in 1835. This living legend of Jaipur offers the finest traditions of Rajput hospitality, its elegant rooms, marbled corridors and majestic gardens echo with history, and every corner has a story to tell.

Jai Mahal Palace, Jaipur

Painstakingly restored and recently refurbished, the palace is a stunning piece of Rajasthan's heritage and a great example of Indo-Saracenic architecture. Set amidst 18 acres of landscaped Mughal gardens, this 18th century palace has been the residence of three Prime Ministers of the princely state of Jaipur.

The Gateway Hotel Ramgarh Lodge, Jaipur

Offering breath-taking views of the Aravalli Hills, the lodge was the former hunting lodge of the Maharaja and Maharani. Built in 1930, this heritage hotel is an exceptional blend of contemporary design with old-world charm.

India's famed pink city, Jaipur is known for its vibrant culture, vivid bazaars, history and architectural marvels.
